Luminari Award Student Application

Guidelines for students: You are entering an essay competition for the Luminari Award. If you are judged to be the winner, you will be a Luminari Award Scholar and will receive a full scholarship* valued at over $1,200.00 to participate in the prestigious 2018 I Want to be an Ambassador! camp to take place in Pittsburgh and Washington, D.C. from June 12-20, 2018.

What is Luminari? Luminari is a Pittsburgh-based nonprofit organization founded to support and create activities that broaden minds, inspire innovations and promote community engagement. (See www.luminari.org).

The I Want to be an Ambassador! camp is a unique and very dynamic seven-day camp focusing on the vital art and skills of diplomacy. Through interactive and hands-on activities, field trips, dialogues with diplomats and business leaders, and simulations of international crises you will learn the life skills crucial for successful interactions at school, at home, and in the community in which you live. The camp includes a trip to Washington, D.C. (To learn more and to see photos from our exciting camp, please visit <http://www.luminari.org/teens-learn-the-vital-art-of-diplomacy/>).

To apply, please follow these three steps:

- Print the Luminari Award application. Write, by hand, a one-page essay describing your interest in the subject matter and ways in which you will benefit from the I Want to be an Ambassador! camp.
- Sign the application and have your parent or legal guardian sign it as well.
- Mail the completed application and essay to us at the US Postal Service address provided no later than January 29, 2018. The Luminari Award winner will be announced on February 25, 2018. Luminari, PO Box 81603, Pittsburgh, PA 15217

Please note that although only one student will receive the Luminari Award, all completed student applications will be considered by Luminari for acceptance into the 2018 camp, and need-based scholarships will be offered to qualified applicants.

For further information, please call 412.877.1888, e-mail bdolinar@luminari.org or visit www.luminari.org

*This scholarship is non-transferable, and can only be redeemed for admission to the 2018 I Want to be an Ambassador! camp. No substitutions, exchanges, or cash prizes will be awarded. (7)
